Skuld boosts effort to improve ailing image

A MODEST reduction in claims and generally improving financial outlook is reported by Skuld in its annual report. The Oslo-based protection-and-indemnity (P&I) club, which is battling to improve its market share post-collision, hit after hitting shipowners with cash calls on its 1998, 1999 and 2000 underwriting years, is hopeful it is overcoming its difficulties.

The club made an underwriting year loss of $16m but achieved a $3.2m profit on the sale of its fleet of four headquarters.

Skuld has bought two captive insurance companies in Luxembourg and strengthened its provision for incurred but not reported (IBNR) claims and a generally improved image.

A MODEST reduction in claims and generally improving financial outlook is reported by Skuld in its annual report. The Oslo-based protection-and-indemnity (P&I) club, which is battling to improve its market share post-collision, hit after hitting shipowners with cash calls on its 1998, 1999 and 2000 underwriting years, is hopeful it is overcoming its difficulties.

The club made an underwriting year loss of $16m but achieved a $3.2m profit on the sale of its fleet of four headquarters.

Skuld has bought two captive insurance companies in Luxembourg and strengthened its provision for incurred but not reported (IBNR) claims and a generally improved image.

A MODEST reduction in claims and generally improving financial outlook is reported by Skuld in its annual report. The Oslo-based protection-and-indemnity (P&I) club, which is battling to improve its market share post-collision, hit after hitting shipowners with cash calls on its 1998, 1999 and 2000 underwriting years, is hopeful it is overcoming its difficulties.

The club made an underwriting year loss of $16m but achieved a $3.2m profit on the sale of its fleet of four headquarters.

Skuld has bought two captive insurance companies in Luxembourg and strengthened its provision for incurred but not reported (IBNR) claims and a generally improved image.

A MODEST reduction in claims and generally improving financial outlook is reported by Skuld in its annual report. The Oslo-based protection-and-indemnity (P&I) club, which is battling to improve its market share post-collision, hit after hitting shipowners with cash calls on its 1998, 1999 and 2000 underwriting years, is hopeful it is overcoming its difficulties.

The club made an underwriting year loss of $16m but achieved a $3.2m profit on the sale of its fleet of four headquarters.

Skuld has bought two captive insurance companies in Luxembourg and strengthened its provision for incurred but not reported (IBNR) claims and a generally improved image.

A MODEST reduction in claims and generally improving financial outlook is reported by Skuld in its annual report. The Oslo-based protection-and-indemnity (P&I) club, which is battling to improve its market share post-collision, hit after hitting shipowners with cash calls on its 1998, 1999 and 2000 underwriting years, is hopeful it is overcoming its difficulties.

The club made an underwriting year loss of $16m but achieved a $3.2m profit on the sale of its fleet of four headquarters.

Skuld has bought two captive insurance companies in Luxembourg and strengthened its provision for incurred but not reported (IBNR) claims and a generally improved image.